THE GENERAL ADJUSTMENT FORCES MEET

EMPLOYES GIVE THEIR SIDE OF IT

Wages Paid By Eastern Roads
Much Smaller Than In West.

EXPECT TO STRIKE NEXT WEEK

Heads of Brotherhoods of Conductors and Trainmen Make Preparations to Receive 1,000 Members of the Adjustment Committees On All the Eastern Systems—Elisha Lee Makes Statement in Behalf of Managers.

New York, July 10.—The general adjustment committees of the trainmen and the conductors on the eastern railroads met at the Broadway Central hotel and appointed a committee to engage a hall in which the 1,000 members of the adjustment committees on all the eastern systems will meet on Saturday and Sunday to ratify the vote in favor of a strike.

After several conferences W. G. Lee, president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, and A. B. Garretson made the statement that the demands of the trainmen and conductors, for which they are expected to strike next week, are for the same wages that are paid on western roads. They gave out a list of the wages paid in the east, west and south in substantiation of this.

"Our grievance," said President Garretson, "is mainly that in the east, where the railroads have rich earnings and do an incomparably larger and more profitable business than the western railroads, the wages should be so much smaller than in the west."

President Lee of the trainmen talked to the same effect, and added that it was no concern of the men if the cost of the increase in wages demanded by the trainmen and conductors was $17,000,000 annually. It was a question of the men being paid fair wages, as much for the same work as the men on the western railroads.

These statements were replied to by a statement issued on behalf of the railroads by Elisha Lee, chairman of their managers' committee, in which he said: "President Lee says that it is no concern of his that the cost of the increase in wages trainmen and conductors ask will amount to $17,000,000 annually. The cost is of great concern to the managers of the railroads and it is of greater concern to the public."

Bulgaria and Serbia About Ready to Discuss Peace.

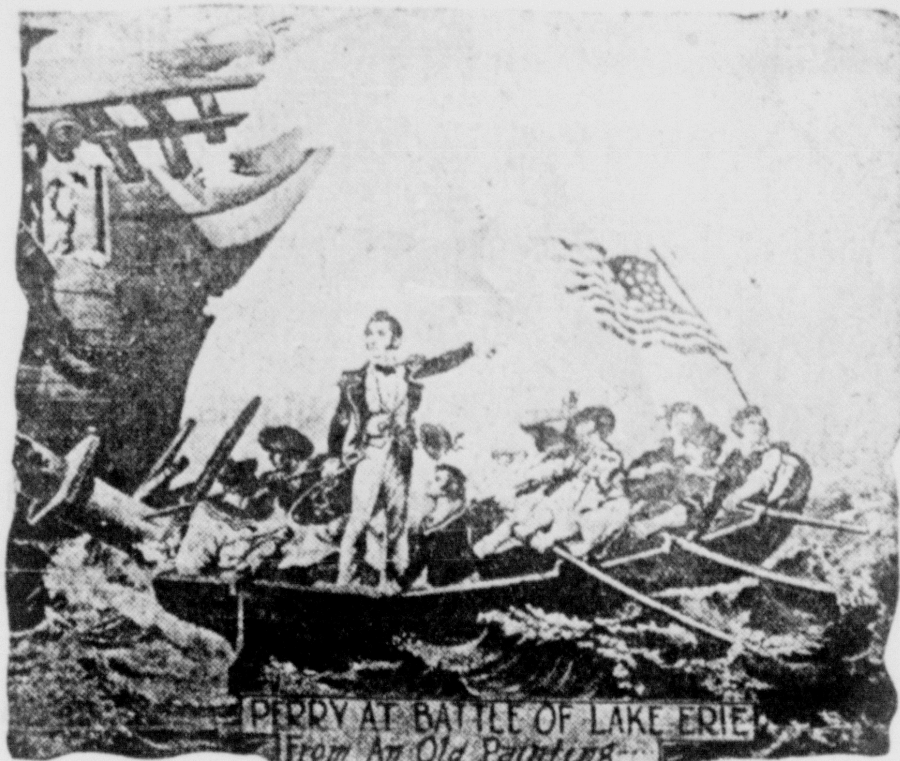

London, July 10.—The Bulgarians are reported to have lost more men killed in the fighting for the last few days in the Kotehana and Ishtib districts than in the entire campaign against the Turks. Dispatches from Sofia say that King Ferdinand is ready to discuss peace with Serbia and Greece. Serbia, too, has suffered terribly in the fighting, and her troops are attacked by cholera. For this reason it is believed that peace negotiations will be begun without delay.

ACTOR FREED

Hackensack, N. J., July 10.—James S. Devlin, the vaudeville actor, who shot and killed Patrolman Patrick Considine in the Devlin home in Cliffside, was acquitted of the charge of murder by a jury that considered the facts for about three hours. The "unwritten law" also had an influence with the jury.

WHEN PERRY FOUGHT CENTURY AGO IN THE FAMOUS BATTLE OF LAKE ERIE

The centennial of Perrys victory in the battle of Lake Erie is now being celebrated in all the big lake cities. The illustration, made from a famous painting of the battle, is of timely interest. The painting is now on exhibition at the Toledo museum, with Perry's battle flag, "Don't Give Up the Ship", and other Perry relics.

TAKES ISSUE WITH PARKER

Wanamaker Says Judges Should Be Subjected to Criticism.

Sandusky, O., July 10.—Judge R. M. Wanamaker of the Ohio supreme court took sharp issue with Judge Alton B. Parker of New York before the Ohio State Bar association at Cedar Point. He disputed Judge Parker's contention that the judiciary ought to be beyond criticism, saying in substance that there is no good reason why a judge should not be criticised for lack of capacity or failing to attend to business, any more than any other official.

Judge Wanamaker spoke in support of a resolution urging the adoption of an amendment to the constitution requiring the supreme court to give opinions in writing and cite the authority upon which it bases its deductions. The resolution was adopted, but was robbed of its sting when removal from office through impeachment was included as the penalty for failure to comply with the provisions of the proposed amendment.

In his speech Judge Parker expressed regret over the impatience of the people over the law and its restraints and defended the constitution and the courts.

INVADERS INVADED

TRUNK LINE NABOBS WILL TALK IT OVER

WILL MEET WILSON AT WHITE HOUSE

Railway Managers and Employees Want Erdman Act Amended.

Washington, July 10.—Announcement was made at the White House that President Wilson on Monday afternoon will meet the representatives of the eastern trunk lines and representatives of the brotherhood of railway operatives, who are now seriously threatening to tie up the transportation facilities of a large part of the country through a strike.

The conference at the White House has been arranged as the result of a joint request by the railroads and the union employees. Its chief purpose is to report to President Wilson the urgent necessity of the adoption by congress of an amendment to the Erdman act which will open a way for the settlement by arbitration or mediation of the differences which now threaten a disastrous strike.

The representatives of both the railroads and the employees are prepared to give their immediate approval to the projected amendment to the Erdman act. The point they wish to emphasize is the necessity for action at once.

The senate has already adopted an amendment to the Erdman act which has been approved by both railroad employers and employees.

Both sides to the dispute refuse to arbitrate under the Erdman law in its present form. They take the ground that the law as at present constituted does not provide for an adequate representation of both sides to a controversy. The proposed amendments do not change the provision of the Erdman act, which seeks the adjustment of railroad troubles in the first instance by conciliation and mediation through the medium of the government board.

Boy Snoots and Kills Brother.
Cincinnati, O., July 10.—Robert Voss, 12, was shot and instantly killed by his brother Arthur, 9. The boys were at play in front of their home and were drilling with a shotgun that had been taken from their home. In a spirit of fun the younger boy aimed the gun at his brother and pulled the trigger. Robert fell dead.

WILL REQUIRE BIGGER PRISON TO HOLD THEM

COX HEARS STORY OF GROSS FRAUDS

Newark Young Man Tells All, Says Ohio's Governor.

NEW NAMES ARE INVOLVED

Former City Officials of Cleveland Accused of Complicity in the Referendum Frauds—Names Signed to Petition in Hotel Room in Columbus by Direction of Men Who Paid For the Work.

Columbus, O., July 10.—"The young man has told us all. We may have to build an addition to the prison to accommodate them all," said Governor Cox, after listening to a story of frauds perpetrated in getting signatures to the workmen's compensation law referendum petition, as told by Ralph E. Lipscomb and his cousin, J. Harry Wheeler, who were brought here from Newark and were personally examined by the governor and other state officers in the office of Secretary of State Graves.

New names were involved in the probe as the result of the Lipscomb confession. Governor Cox accused of complicity in the alleged frauds two officers of the Cleveland city administration of Former Mayor Baehr. They are Charles E. Kibler, former sealer of weights and measures, and Andy Lea, former director of public service. Before receiving this appointment in a Republican administration Mr. Lea had been elected county surveyor as a Democrat.

The confessions obtained from the Newark men also tended to connect Walter B. Vincent of Cincinnati, under arrest here, as one of the trio charged with securing false signatures.

Governor Cox also heard from Cincinnati news of the first effect of the fraud disclosures. This was that the proposal to initiate a constitutional amendment for the classification of property for taxation had been abandoned. Bankers and business men who were backing this proposal have decided the muck kicked up about manufactured signatures has brought the entire initiative and referendum system into such temporary disrepute as to make it inadvisable to try to make use of it this year.

Lipscomb's Story.
To the governor, Attorney General Hogan, Secretary of State Graves, Assistant Secretary of State Secret, State Chairman William L. Finley, Assistant Attorney General Dempsey, Special Counsel Charles C. Marshall and City Solicitor Roderic Jones of Newark, Lipscomb told of the methods used to get signatures with as little work as possible and without consulting the wishes of the "signers." He told of men sitting in a hotel room in Columbus and filling in names on blanks by direction of the men who were paying them. He said the petitions were thumb-marked and rubbed after the men had soiled their fingers to give the appearance of having been carried about and handled by numerous people. He said the men joked about the frauds.

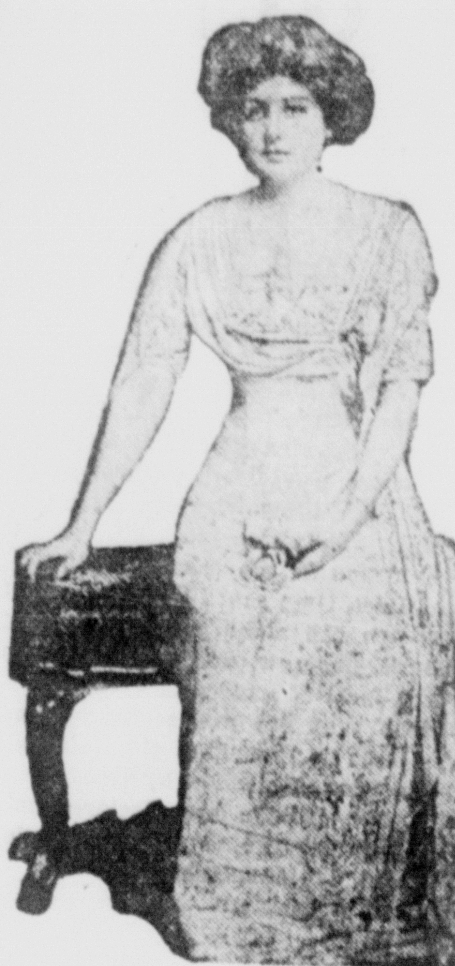

Lipscomb said he failed to get signatures in Fayette county and came here, where he met Vincent, who explained to him how signatures were obtained from poll books, registration lists, city directories and telephone directories. Vincent had told him, he claimed, that it was a good plan to smear coal dust over the petitions from the mining districts.

Some Fine Work.
According to Lipscomb, men in charge of the work went to the trouble of using assumed names. He said he received a telephone message while at Mt. Vernon that a Mr. Smith would meet him and get his petitions, but the man described to him as Smith turned out, he said, to be Andy Lea. He said Kibler had headquarters at Covington for work in Ohio river towns and had his mail sent to 1949.

KATHERINE FORCE

Her Engagement to Henri Harnickell Recently Announced.

Miss Katherine Force is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Force of New York and sister of Mrs. John Jacob Astor. The announcement of her engagement to Mr. Henri Harnickell, a New York broker, has created widespread interest. The date of the wedding has not been given out, but it is understood the ceremony will take place at Bar Harbor, where both young people are passing the summer.

CAPITAL IS BOMBARDED BY THE HAIL

STREETS COVERED WITH ICE BOULDERS

Destruction Wrought By Hail-storm at Columbus.

Columbus, O., July 10. This city was visited by probably the most disastrous hailstorm in its history.

The damage to crops and buildings in this immediate vicinity is estimated conservatively at $125,000.

South Side florists alone report losses of approximately $50,000. In hundreds of houses practically every window was broken. The ground on the South Side was covered with a thick layer of "ice boulders" for an hour or two afterwards. As a midsummer phenomenon it probably was without a parallel in this state.

Accompanied by a 45-mile-an-hour gale, the hailstone landed with an irresistible force. A hailstone which measured slightly more than three inches in diameter, struck J. W. Sprouse, a teamster, on the left arm, causing a fracture of the wrist. William Bernard was in a greenhouse when a huge hailstone broke the glass above him and drove a sliver of glass entirely through his right forearm. Many others suffered minor injuries.

Of the florists and nurserymen the largest loss was suffered by the Columbus Floral company, $20,000; Peter Fernhoff, $8,000; Herman Kropp, $3,000; Hellenthal, $3,500; C. A. Roth, $5,000; Emil Metzmaier, $2,000. The odore Olpp, $2,000. Farms and gardens south of town were practically denuded of crops.

Personation of Federal Officials Held a Serious Offense.

New York, July 10.—The attitude of United States District Attorney H. Snowden Marshall leaves little doubt that David Lamar will be prosecuted for personating congressmen, who are, as Mr. Marshall contends, officers of the United States government. The punishment for that offense is a fine of not more than $1,000 or imprisonment for not more than three years, or both.

HOUSE ORDERS INVESTIGATION

Authorizes An Inquiry Into the Mulhall Charges.

SPEAKER NAMES COMMITTEE

Senate Probers In Possession of All the Papers On Which the Mulhall Allegations Are Based and the Action of the Lower Branch of Congress Opens the Way For a Controversy—Willis On the Committee.

Washington, July 10.—By an unanimous vote the house passed a resolution authorizing an inquiry into charges made by Colonel Martin Mulhall, that the National Association of Manufacturers maintained a lobby that sought improperly to influence legislation and the conduct of members of congress.

The action of the house opens the way for a controversy with the senate committee, which is in possession of all the papers on which the Mulhall charges are based. Senator Overman, chairman of the senate committee on inquiry, announced several days ago that he and his associates would retain the Mulhall papers until their investigation of this phase of the lobby question came to an end. Without this data the hands of the special house committee created are tied.

Under the terms of the resolution adopted by the house an effort will be made to determine just who originated the idea for a probe of the affairs of the United States Steel corporation, conducted by a special committee in the last congress under the direction of Representative Stanley of Kentucky. The resolution also opens the way for an inquiry into the forces behind other recent investigations by congress.

Testimony brought out before the senate committee was to the effect that David Lamar wrote the original steel trust resolution and that he turned it over to Henry B. Martin, head of the so-called Anti-Trust League of America.

Immediately upon the passage of the resolution Speaker Clark appointed the committee, as follows: Representatives Garrett of Tennessee, chairman; Cline of Indiana, Russell of Missouri, and Roddenberry of Georgia, Democrats; Stafford of Wisconsin and Willis of Ohio, Republicans, and Nolan of California, Bull Moose.

THE THIRD FLUKE BY THE SLEUTHS BOOSTS CLAIM OF NEVER AGAIN

Attorneys Badger and Ulrey Were on Hand in Mayor Creath's Court This Morning Minus the Evidence to Back Them Up.

DETECTIVES NOW DEMAND GUARANTEE OF PROTECTION.

Just How the Latest Demand of the Now Absent Witnesses Can Be Complied With is Not Yet Made Clear, But L. and O. L. Attorneys Insist it Can and Will Be Done.

The people who assembled at Bloomingburg Thursday morning to see the arrest of the Burns operatives and attend the trial of A. B. Cash and Henry Brown, were again disappointed when no court was held, and when the detectives failed to appear as witnesses in the case against the accused, but sent word by Attorneys Badger and Ulrey that as soon as protection was guaranteed while they were here, that they would come, but did not care to appear and incite a riot in protecting themselves as they felt they would have to do.

"If a reasonable bond can be arranged for the appearance of the boys, they will come at once and make arrangements for their later appearance, and we will probably look after that at once so that court will not be interrupted by attempted arrests or rioting due to an attempt to arrest the men," said Attorney Badger in speaking of the non-appearance of the men Thursday morning.

Mr. Badger further stated that open threats of violence had been made against the Burns operatives by hot-headed persons, and that the men would appear as prosecuting witnesses in the bootlegging cases now pending before Mayor Creath just as soon as satisfactory arrangements were made to insure proper protection and proper precaution to prevent a disturbance was taken.

The non-appearance of the men has strengthened the belief among many that they would not appear to face the charges against them, but Attorneys Badger and Ulrey say that such a belief is entirely without grounds, and that within the next few days, probably tomorrow, the trials against the alleged bootleggers will proceed.

Attorneys Patto and Gregg appeared with Margaret Ott and bills of exception in both cases were signed by the attorneys with a view to carrying the case to the common pleas court within a short time. It will be remembered that Margaret Ott was fined $100 and costs in the first case and $200 and costs in the second, the charges being the illegal sale of intoxicants. Two bottles of beer "exhibit 3 and 4" were left in the care of Mayor Creath to be by him placed in the hands of the clerk of courts.

According to Attorneys Badger and Ulrey, the Burns operatives returned to Cleveland Tuesday after they had made arrangements to be in Bloomingburg Monday, and found there would be no court on that day.

Chief McCoy, Patrolman Baughn and a special officer motored to Bloomingburg about ten o'clock with a view to serving the warrants issued against the sleuths, but again returned to this city empty-handed after learning that the detectives were not in Bloomingburg and would not be there Thursday.

This is the third time now that the alleged detectives have fluked on their promise to come.

Since their hurried get away after the first attempt at arrest was made and frustrated by the order of Mayor Creath holding them immune from arrest while in attendance as witnesses at his court, there have been three distinct promises, backed by Attorneys Badger and Ulrey that the sleuths would be at Bloomingburg to meet their accusers, prepared to fight to the last ditch and give their evidence in the cases pending.

Each time there has been a failure to toe the mark and the detectives have, once out of the jurisdiction of the local courts, seen carefully to it that they did not again return.

This is the first time protection has been demanded by them.

Many people now declare that by demanding the impossible the detectives have furnished their last alibi for a permanent absence from this section.

The attorneys for the Law and Order League say they are not in the least perturbed by the latest developments and are confident that the prosecutions will be proceeded with in due time.

Attorneys are still insistent that the trial of the cases will be resumed before Mayor Creath Saturday, at which time the detectives, the attorneys say, will appear. Plans are being suggested to avoid trouble in connection with the arrest of the detectives by the local authorities.

Before returning to Columbus Thursday morning Attorneys Badger and Ulrey came to this city and Judge Badger went before Mayor Smith and asked that the amount of the bond of the detectives be fixed in order, he stated, that arrangements could be made to give the necessary bond. He was informed by Mayor Smith that no bond would be fixed until such time as the men appeared in court.

FUNERAL SERVICES OF JUDGE M'ELWAIN

Funeral services over the remains of Judge Thomas D. McElwain brought from the Sandusky Soldiers' home Tuesday night for burial in the cemetery of his home town, were held at Memorial Hall Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock.

The G. A. R. services conducted were simple and affecting.

Dr. H. W. Ham, the minister from the Sandusky home, had accompanied the remains and made beautiful and appreciative remarks, speaking of the prominent part Judge McElwain had taken at the Home and the esteem in which he was held.

Rev. Ross supplemented this talk with brief remarks.

Opening the services the Ladies of the G. A. R. held their impressive ritual and placed the flag of honor on the breast of the deceased.

A large number of old soldiers accompanied the remains to the cemetery and held the G. A. R. ritual at the grave.

The pall bearers were comrades W. D. Blakemore, Wm. Millikan, of Kansas; Samuel Rodgers, of Good Hope; George Duffee; Fred Backenstoe, L. P. Saxton.

Judge McElwain's son, Mr. Will McElwain, was here from New York for the funeral.

LOCAL COMPANY WINS BIG SUIT

The Washington Milling Company Secures Rebate From Railroads That Charged Exorbitant Rate for the Shipment of Flour to Points East of Kenova, W. Va.—Interstate Commerce Commission Decides Suit of General Interest.

The Washington Milling Company, which some time ago brought suit against the Norfolk & Western, C. H. & D. and Pennsylvania railroads for return of excessive freight charged for shipments of flour east of Kenova, W. Va., has just been apprised of a decision handed down by the Interstate Commerce Commission which decides the case in the favor of the Washington Milling Company.

The company brought suit holding that the freight charges were unreasonable, being 19c on the 100 lbs. The Commission held that the rate should not be more than 15c per hundred, and the railroads must now return quite a large sum collected for freight.

The amount is said to be from $15 to $20 per car, and the commission has held that excessive freight charges shall be returned on all shipments made since May 15, 1912, or upward of 100 cars of flour shipped to the above mentioned points during the time since May 15, 1912.

BARBER HURT DURING STORM

E. L. Tracey, the well known barber, was run down by a horse and buggy during the storm Wednesday evening, and painfully bruised, but not seriously hurt.

Mr. Tracey was in the act of crossing the street near the Cherry hotel and had an umbrella raised. He was running and a buggy containing two men dashed up from Market street, knocking him down and running over him. The rig stopped but finding Mr. Tracey able to scramble to his feet and continue the journey, they hurried onward to escape the storm.

Mr. Tracey is still suffering from the effects of the injuries sustained.

RENDER AID TO STRICKEN FAMILY

A subscription paper was started in Bloomingburg Thursday morning raising funds for the benefit of the family of the late Stewart McCoy, who was killed by lightning last week while running toward home from the harvest field.

Thursday noon the amount subscribed had reached between $30 and $50 and was still increasing as names were added to the list.

Washington, July 10.—Representative James T. McDermott, of Illinois will be heard before the house committee appointed to investigate the charges of corruption preferred in a published statement by Colonel Martin M. Mulhall, of Baltimore, former chief lobbyist for the National Association of Manufacturers. Mulhall charged that McDermott was one of several who was financially rewarded for services rendered the National Association of Manufacturers. Representative McDermott is an avowed champion of labor, but is alleged by Mulhall to have sold out to the manufacturers. He is charged with having worked hand in hand with J. H. McMichaels, former chief of pages in the house and now an elevator operator at the capitol, who was represented as being the chief spy for the National Association of Manufacturers' lobby.

LIGHTNING CLAIMS LIFE OF SIXTEEN-YEAR-OLD LAD

Howard Drais, Son of John Drais, Is Killed and Virgil Drais and Frank Collopy Have Miraculous Escape When Lightning Strikes Barn.

BARN ON SAME SPOT DESTROYED BY LIGHTNING ONE YEAR AGO.

Bolt Struck Barn and Ran Down Ladder Which Lad Was in the Act of Climbing—Companions Within 3 Feet of Him and All Fell in a Heap—Barn Escapes Destruction.

Lightning claimed another victim in this county at 4:30 Wednesday evening, when Howard Drais, the 16-year-old son of John Drais, living two miles east of this city on the Circleville pike, was instantly killed in the Bart Weaver barn, where he and Virgil Drais, a cousin, Frank Collopy and Ed Smith had taken refuge from the storm.

The lad's death occurred during the big hail storm which swept over central Fayette Wednesday evening, and which was accompanied by a great amount of lightning.

The four persons sought refuge in the barn and the three boys were close together when the fateful stroke fell. Howard was standing on the ladder leading from the ground floor to the hay loft, and was in the act of climbing the ladder, while his two companions were within three feet of him.

With a blinding flash and a terrific roar the bolt fell upon the barn, penetrated the roof and ran down the ladder, striking the unfortunate lad on the side of the head, tearing the hair away and running the full length of his body, nearly tearing his clothing and shoes to pieces and leaving a crimson streak from head to foot.

All of the boys fell in a heap, Frank Collopy soon recovered enough to get out of the barn and later render assistance. Virgil Drais also soon recovered and was removed to the house. Ed Smith, who was in another part of the barn was severely shocked but not seriously injured.

A horse standing in the stall within a few feet of where the lad was killed was knocked down and rendered unconscious for some time. Luckily the barn was not set on fire or three deaths instead of one would have been the awful result.

Coroner Howell was summoned to the scene and viewed the remains. The body was later removed to the lad's home a half mile distant.

The funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the residence on the Circleville pike, followed by burial in the Washington cemetery.

The lad's father and mother are heart-broken over the great sadness so suddenly thrust upon them in the loss of their young son.

A year ago a barn standing on the identical spot where the present structure stood, was struck by lightning and destroyed, and this time the lightning bolt fell within five feet of where the one did which destroyed the other barn.

LIBERTY BELL AT EXPOSITION.

Famous Old Relic Will Be One of the Interesting Attractions.

Philadelphia.—Despite the dire predictions of expert metallurgists and others, it seems settled that the Liberty bell, which proclaimed the independence of the United States 137 years ago, will be sent to the Panama-Pacific exposition at San Francisco in 1915.

The crack, which was started on July 4, 1776, when the bell pealed forth the news of the signing of the Declaration of Independence, extends around one-fourth of the bell's circumference and is gradually increasing. According to Wilfred Jordan, curator of Independence Hall, the crack extended two inches in a single year during the handling incidental to the founders' week celebration in this city in 1908.

The course followed by the crack is along an imperfection known to metallurgists as a "cooling strain," which offers the least resistance to the pressure of the bell's sides.

"The slightest vibration," said Mr. Jordan, "will affect the bell in time, and the continual jarring which is bound to result on a railroad, no matter how well the bell may be protected, will shorten the time many fold when the old relic will fall to pieces, if, indeed, it returns from the 6000 mile journey whole."

CAT GETS TO FIRES.

Firemen's Pet Slides Down Pole and Rides With Driver.

New Orleans.—A cat that leaps from its box on the second floor of Engine Company No. 25 quarters when the alarm sounds, springs for the brass pole and with its fore and hind feet embracing the rod, slides down to the main floor and then jumps on the driver's seat of the engine, is the new mascot adopted by the firemen there.

"Willie" was found one day asleep in a soap box upstairs. The animal seemed satisfied with accommodations and was allowed to remain. A day later, when an alarm rang, the astounded members saw a ball of fur shoot for the rod and later spring for the engine.

In off days, when alarms are few, some one taps on the bell just to see the cat jump. Children in the neighborhood gather around the door, and some one makes a noise like a signal, and down slides "Willie."

Eight Notch Man Dies In Chair.

Eddyville, Ky.—General May, whose ever ready pistol bore eight notches, was put to death in the electric chair here for the murder of Mrs. Belle Meredith of Clay county. Mrs. Meredith was shot down after May had killed her husband. May, whose Christian name was General, had been a deputy sheriff, and in a fight several years ago he was shot twelve times.

Exempts Wedding Gift.

Kansas City.—A wedding gift of 27 teen years ago remains inviolable by creditors under a decision given by Judge Ellison of the court of appeals.

The wedding gift was a cow. The father of Mrs. Thomas Hines of Holt county, Mo., gave it to her when she married. The Hineses milked the cow until it became too old to milk. Then they sold it. Mr. Hines kept the money some time, then bought another milk cow with it. Felix Gambrel tried to attach the cow for a debt against Hines.

Mrs. Hines protested that it was virtually the cow her father had given her. Gambrel lost.

MAY ARRANGE GOLF MATCHES

Ray and Vardon May Meet Travers and Low.

The Baltusrol Golf club is raising a purse with which it is hoped to induce Edward Ray, the British golf champion, and Harry Vardon, five times holder of the title, to appear on Short Hills (N. J.) links when they arrive in this country for a match against two American players.

Jerome D. Travers, the national amateur champion, and George Low, former Metropolitan open champion, are proposed for the American side, and Sept. 13 fixed tentatively as a date for the match if it can be arranged.

The Referendum Frauds

The charge of wholesale forgery of signatures to the petitions for a referendum election on the workman's compulsory compensation law furnishes powerful argument for those who oppose the much-talked of initiative and referendum.

Perhaps some of the advocates of these governmental principles in the campaign of the last two years in their zeal have claimed too much of good and conceded too little of danger and as a consequence the people have been educated to expect in these principles a panacea for all the ills which oppress them.

For those who so ardently advocated the adoption of the initiative and the referendum, it is unfortunate that the first practical try-out should result in an attempt to work such a monumental fraud on the people.

Yet it is, perhaps, well for the people to learn at the outset that these provisions are, at best, a two-edged sword. Then with the new instrument of government in their hands they will use it more cautiously if they do not lay it aside for a long, long time.

There has always been some little doubt about the practical workings of the initiative and referendum among the more thoughtful of the men who gave them their ardent support.

Scarcely none of the able advocates believed they would be beneficial in practical government if resorted to too often.

The greatest good for them was claimed in the deterring influence which the mere possession of the right to resort to them by the people exercised over legislative bodies inclined to go wrong.

The people of Ohio have had one side of the picture painted by the political spell binders and in an incredibly short time afterward they are shown the uglier side by those who opposed their adoption.

Governor Cox with characteristic energy is running the fraud to earth, determined to get at the facts and to see that the guilty are prosecuted.

So far as the facts have been given to the public in the news columns there seems to be no doubt that the perpetration of a monumental fraud was attempted and that it has been discovered in the very nick of time.

What the ultimate result will be upon the guilty parties and what the effect will be on the judgment of the voters remains to be seen.

If designing and unscrupulous men have sought to work a fraud upon the people by laying hold of the weapon of the referendum it is not conclusive by any means that the principle is unsound, but it may be sufficient to create genuine and long lasting hostility in the minds of the people.

The Country Needs New Pioneers;
Modern Frontiersmen
Are In DemandBy JOHN H. FINLEY, President of the College of the City of New YorkPhoto by American Press Association.

WE are constantly reminded by those who see our golden age behind us that the ax and the plow, the rifle and the saddle have carried us through the days of our simple life, through democracy's heroic period into a SOFTER AND A DEGENERATE AGE. We are overtrained, over-refined, effeminate, luxury loving children, living most of us, and willingly, like birds in cages which the telegraph and telephone wires have made about us.

We have our food thrust between the rails of steel or the meshes of the wire, water is pumped to our lips, and we NO LONGER HAVE TO ROAM FOREST and plain for these things. I went some time ago into the wild Rockies, but was informed before I started that I should have to take my evening clothes. Montana buys the costliest paintings in Paris. Parkman's "Oregon Trail," so dear to me in my college days, is redolent of the gasoline automobile. There are Carnegie libraries in Wyoming. There are NO FRONTIERSMEN, we say.

STILL THERE ARE NEW PIONEERS IN AMERICA, FOR THIS COUNTRY HAS HER FRONTIERSMEN NOT LESS CERTAINLY TODAY THAN IN THE DECADES OF THE PAST. OF THESE NEW FRONTIERSMEN, FOR THERE ARE MANY, ARE THE MEN WHO HAVE BEEN GATHERED AND NURTURED HERE IN THIS CITY—MEN OF THE LENS AND THE METER, MEN OF THE BALANCE AND THE CRUCIBLE, MEN OF THE MAGNET AND SPECTRUM, OF THE SYLLOGISM, OF THE EQUATION, OF THE CONJUGATION, OF THE BRUSH, THE CHISEL, MEN WHO SEE MORE OF TRUTH WITH THEIR EYES THAN THE AVERAGE MAN, THINK MORE CLEARLY AND EXPRESS THE TRUTH MORE ACCURATELY. THESE ARE NO LESS PRECURSORS, THE FRONTIERSMEN OF CIVILIZATION.

The hardship of the new pioneer is no longer that of sleeping on the bare earth, of long journeys afoot. The privation is no longer that of going without food or drink, of living far from friends, of enduring the untimpered cold or withering heat. The hardship is that of HOLDING ONESELF TO A COURSE OF STUDY OR HARD TRAINING that will lead out to the edge of the known; the privation that of denying oneself every luxury, every comfort, to find the truth—this is the NEW FRONTIERING that the republic needs.

Poetry For Today

ONE DAY AT A TIME.

One day at a time! That's all it can be;

No faster than that is the hardest fate;

And days have their limits, however, we Begin them too early and stretch them too late.

One day at a time!

It's a wholesome rhyme!

A good one to live by,

A day at a time.

One day at a time! Every heart that

aches

Knowing only too well how long they seem;

But it's never today which the spirit breaks—

It's the darkened future without a gleam.

One day at a time! When joy is at height,

Such joy as the heart can never forget,

And pulses are throbbing with wild delight,

How hard to remember that suns must set.

One day at a time! But a single day,

Whatever its load, whatever its length;

And there's a bit of precious Scripture to say

That according to each shall be our strength.

One day at a time! 'Tis the whole

of life;

All sorrow, all joy are measured therein.

The bond of our purpose, our noblest strife,

The one only countersign sure to win.

One day at a time!

It's a wholesome rhyme!

A good one to live by,

A day at a time.

—Helen Hunt Jackson.

CHANGE IN COLLEGIATE RACES

Junior Eight Will Take Place of the Four Oared Event.

The last race at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., between four oared coxswainless crews has been rowed. At a meeting held recently the race stewards decided that a two mile race for junior varsity eights will supplant the four oared race on future programs of the regatta. The four oared race has been rowed annually since 1899, when Cornell and Pennsylvania universities first entered crews, but it has lost favor in late years. In 1908 Cornell's four had the race practically won when it ran into a stake buoy. That accident called forth demands for the abolition of the race.

The ill luck that pursued the four oared boats on the Hudson this season, culminating in the smashing up of the Pennsylvania shell and the wrecking of the Syracuse boat in the race, made the stewards take action.

TO OLD GLORYIndians Everywhere Greet the Wanamaker Party

U. S. FLAG FOR ALL TRIBES.

Expedition to Visit 89 Reservations and 169 Tribes—Stars and Stripes Saluted by Redskins, Who Swear Loyalty—Indians Fast Disappearing.

Philadelphia. — In order that every Indian in the United States may have an opportunity to declare his allegiance to the stars and stripes, the flag of the white man who has driven him and his people into a few restricted reservations scattered over the country, the Rodman Wanamaker expedition of citizenship to the North American Indian is visiting these reservations, carrying words of good will and encouragement to the descendants of the warriors who made the white settlers fight tooth and nail for a foothold in North America.

This expedition, which by the authority of the president left Philadelphia for the west, is the result of the inspiration of Rodman Wanamaker of Philadelphia, the donor of the memorial to the Indian which is being erected at Fort Wadsworth, N. Y. The expedition carries with it the same flag and ropes that were used in the flag raising at the dedication of the memorial at Fort Wadsworth on the last anniversary of Washington's birthday, and every Indian tribe will have an opportunity to hoist the flag on its own territory and sign the declaration of allegiance under which thirty-three Indian chiefs "made their marks" at the dedication ceremonies.

In charge of the expedition is Dr. Joseph Kossuth Dixon of Philadelphia. The other members of the party are Rollin Lester Dixon, H. Trevor Booth, M. Harris Cole, Major James McLaughlin, representing the department of the interior, and Montgomery Conkey, stenographer. These men will travel 20,802 miles before they return to Philadelphia on Dec. 5 next and will visit eighty-nine reservations and 169 tribes. Each tribe will be presented with a large American flag, the gift of Mr. Wanamaker, and for the first time in the history of their race these bronze men will have a flag of their own.

The Indian has been well called "a man without a country," and, though every reservation has its government office over which the stars and stripes flutter, no one has ever seen Old Glory raised over a foot of the soil reserved for the Indians by their conquerors.

At the ceremonies attending the presentation of the flags the Indians are having an opportunity to hear the message which the great white father, President Taft, delivered to the thirty-three chiefs on Washington's birthday. Indian interpreters are reading this message to the red men.

To give in detail the itinerary of the expedition would exhaust both patience and space. Suffice it to say that practically every state in the west and south is being visited and that all methods of locomotion, from the twentieth century "iron horse" to the eighteenth century stagecoach, are being experienced by the white men, smoking the pipe of peace with their aboriginal brothers.

Although the Indians have succumbed before the white men like snow before a spring sun, it may surprise many persons to know that there are still 350,000 of the original owners of America within its shores, this including half breeds as well as the full blooded types. When Columbus landed there were about 1,200,000 redskins on this continent.

The Indian is fast disappearing. Before he is extinct or entirely assimilated by the stronger race that has conquered him it is the praiseworthy purpose of Mr. Wanamaker and his associates to make some amends for the hard knocks he has had from the white race in the past, so that "when we meet him later on over the great divide we shall not have to make an accounting to him for our perfidy and cruelty to his people."

PHESIDENT'S FUTURE SON-IN-LAW BLUSHES AT MISS WILSON'S NAME COLONEL ROOSEVELT GOT HIM HIS JOB

FRANCIS BOWES SAYRE.
ENGAGED TO PRESIDENT'S DAUGHTER.
PHOTO © 1913 BY AMERICAN PRESS ASSOCIATION

New York, July 10.—"When did you meet Miss Wilson?" Francis Bowser Sayre was asked when his engagement to Miss Jessie Woodrow Wilson, daughter of the president, became known. He blushed becomingly at the mention of her name. "About two years ago," he said modestly. "We met in Lancaster county, Pa., where we both happened to be visiting mutual friends." To the suggestion that it might have been a romantic acquaintance Mr. Sayre protested quickly: "Oh, no! We became acquainted in an entirely formal and conventional manner. Now, really, for anything more about this you must see Miss Wilson. How did I happen to come into the district attorney's office? Through the kindness of Colonel Roosevelt." "Are you a bull moose, then?" Mr. Sayre saw that there was rather deep water ahead. "Well," he parried, "I am a great admirer of Colonel Roosevelt." "You are not a Democrat, are you?" "I voted for President Wilson," he said, with a smile. Mr. Sayre bears a striking resemblance to President Wilson.

FLYING BOAT USED IN PRACTICAL WAY

Chicago Man Plans to Fly to and From His Office.

Chicago.—A striking indication of the part that aviation is destined to take in practical problems of transportation is given by a recent tendency, just beginning to manifest itself in America, to use the flying boat in a practical way for ordinary business purposes. For daily travel between Chicago and his home in Lake Forest, a suburb twenty-five miles north of the business center of the city, Harold F. McCormick is planning to use a Curtiss flying boat. This flying boat is adapted for use as an aeroplane, but is said to be a staunch and seaworthy boat as well. In ordinary practice it will be run in such a way as to skim the surface of the water or to fly a short distance above it, thus eliminating many of the dangers both of flying and of high speed boating. The propeller is located at the bow of the boat and pulls the machine along instead of driving it. In this position the propeller drives the air blast through the radiator, making it possible to keep the engines cool for hours when the boat is running at slow speed on the water. The hull differs from that of the standard type in having a V shaped bottom, a feature designed to make it a smooth riding craft in choppy seas. Seats will be provided in the cockpit for four passengers, while the front seat will give room for the driver and one passenger, an arrangement similar to that of the four passenger automobile. As a matter of safety the control is arranged so that either of the occupants of the front seat can handle the machine.

Power is supplied by a Curtiss eight cylinder motor of the latest type. This motor, which is designed for operation at moderately high speeds, is rated at from 90 to 100 horsepower and shows 100 brake horsepower at 1,800 revolutions per minute. The weight of the motor, exclusive of radiator, is 310 pounds. During recent trials this machine was run at the rate of a mile a minute flying in the air and at the rate of fifty miles an hour when operated as a hydroaeroplane.

Next I. O. O. F. Encampment.
Fostoria, O., July 10.—Portsmouth will entertain the grand encampment I. O. O. F. next year, being chosen over Columbus and other cities. The meeting closed after the installation of officers elected in December. A military ball concluded the encampment.

MOTORCYCLE COMING INTO ITS OWN

Finding a Place in All Lines of Business.
Pleasure Riders, Too, Rapidly Increasing.

A prediction made some years ago by a well-known sociologist—that the motorcycle would do more than any other one factor to revolutionize American life—is rapidly becoming true.

The growth of the automobile has been limited by two things—first, cost, and the steadily increasing expense of upkeep. These placed it beyond the reach of millions of people. But the motorcycle costs about half the price of even a cheap automobile. It will run over any roads, even over by-paths; and a single gallon of fuel carries the rider from 75 to 90 miles.

Naturally, therefore, the first demand for the motorcycle came from the thousands of people to whom a motor car meant too much expense. At half the cost and a fraction of the upkeep of the cheapest car, it places change, recreation, and the possibility of extended travel within their reach. The man whose limit of travel had hitherto been the county line has been enabled to glide swiftly and smoothly over the entire state—and from there into other states. This demand alone would take many times the output of all the makers combined.

But side by side with the demand of the pleasure-driver—and almost without solicitation—the business and professional world has been claiming the motorcycle for its own. Telegraph and telephone companies began to mount their linemen, inspectors and repairmen. Traveling salesmen covering the smaller towns abandoned the long wait between trains in favor of the speedy, sure motorcycle. Physicians, ministers with scattered congregations, stock-buyers—in a hundred and one professions and lines of business it has been invaluable.

And we are just at the beginning. Conservative estimates are that there is an unfailing market for 2,000,000 motorcycles a year. Yet all the makers combined cannot now turn out 200,000 annually.

ATTACKED BY SNAKES.

Virginia Man Saves Self by Rolling Into Fire, Then Stream.

Piedmont, W. Va.—While trout fishing in a mountain stream near Mountaineer George Enser, a well known business man of this city, was attacked by snakes, and before he could beat them off the reptiles had entwined themselves about him, binding his arms, hands and feet. The snakes, over a dozen in number, measured from four to six feet in length.

Enser had the presence of mind to roll down the hill into a fire that he had built to warm his breakfast. His clothing caught fire, and the snakes, scorched and sizzling, untwined from his body and escaped.

Enser, though badly burned, ran to the trout stream and threw himself into the water, extinguishing his burning clothing.

His body, arms and face were severely burned.

Mining Companies to Combine.

Bridgeport, O., July 10.—Three of the largest mining corporations in eastern Ohio have practically completed plans for merging, which will give them control of four-fifths of the output in Belmont county, the largest coal-producing county in Ohio. The merging companies are the Youngblood and Ohio, Lorain Coal and Dock company, and the Belmont Coal mining company. The combined capital of the new corporation will be about $15,000,000.

McCombs Recovering.

Paris, July 10.—The condition of William F. McCombs, chairman of the Democratic national committee, is declared most satisfactory by the surgeon in attendance. His progress toward recovery from the operation for appendicitis he underwent here is said to be perfectly normal.

TERRIFIC HAIL STORM PELTED WASHINGTON DOING MUCH DAMAGE HEAVY RAINS FOLLOW

Storm Broke Over the City About 4 O'Clock in the Afternoon—New Holland and Sabina Report Much Damage in That Section—Lightning was Blinding and Rain Torrential.

Washington C. H. seems to have been the center for one of the most violent storms of the summer Wednesday night. After slowly gathering for several hours the storm broke with tremendous fury about four o'clock in the afternoon. Thunder
pealed, blinding lightning streaked
the sky and a torrent of rain and hail fell. The hail stones were generally considered the largest ever seen in this locality. They fell unevenly, in some places a perfect shower. On the Mart L. McCoy farm, just southwest of town, the hail fell so thickly that it had to be scooped up with a shovel, the hail the size of quail eggs. Mr. McCoy's corn was considerably cut and blown down, as was quite a good deal of the corn in that vicinity.

The farm residence of Mrs. Eldora

Stinson, west of town, was injured slightly, panes of glass being broken
in the windows.

Below town toward Sabina the storm broke with great fury, the lightning, like a perpetual sheet of flame and the hail whipping growing crops and shattering the windows of the residents. The corn crop in this neighborhood is greatly injured and the hail storm, one of the worst ever known in the vicinity.

The farms of both J. L. Rothrock and Harry E. Brown were in the heart of this storm and both crops
and tenant houses suffered.

Jeffersonville and Milledgeville seem to have escaped better than most towns of the county and as far as can be learned the storm confined itself to heavy rain.

While there was great damage east of town, New Holland and immediate vicinity escaped the brunt of the storm.

All evening the elements warred,
the storm returning again and again
and finally seeming to wear itself
out.

Citizens residing near Johnson's Crossing report a heavy fall of hail and rain accompanied by destructive lightning. Windows in a few places were broken out and small plants suffered. Hail stones as large as walnuts were found. Lightning struck and burned hay on the farm of Chas. Linniger and also on the farm of Austin Kelley. Several trees were riddled by the lightning including some in the Plano neighborhood,
a few miles east of Johnson's Crossing. Telephone communication was cut off by the storm and was not restored until noon Thursday.

The largest hail stones that fell in Fayette county, were reported at Staunton, it being claimed that they missiles as large as hen eggs dropped from the sky. Fortunately the fall of hail was of short duration and practically no damage was done, and no one was hurt. The hail was followed by a very heavy rain, accompanied by fierce lightning flashes.

Rock Mills reported a sprinkle of hail, with a very heavy rain. No damage occurred. Good Hope was drenched with rain. There was no wind or hail and no damage from lightning was reported.

CONGRESS TO SIT AN ENTIRE YEAR?

Continuous Session Feared Because of Currency Bill.

HOPE LIES IN PRESIDENT.

Belief Expressed That Capital's Dog
Days Will Drive Wilson Away—Currency Bill to Pass House Easily, and Fight Will Come in Senate.

Washington.—Leaders in congress and the administration fear that the present session of congress will run into the late fall and possibly merge with the session that will begin the first Monday in December.

There are a few optimists, like Representative Hull of Tennessee, who see no reason why congress should not conclude its labors by the middle of October.

Representative Henry of Texas expressed the opinion that congress probably would remain in session continuously until late in the summer of next year. In the course of the debate in the house of representatives Mann of Illinois, the Republican leader, made the remark that this session would continue until December.

Prophecies as to the duration of the session are based on the theory that congress will follow the recommendation of President Wilson and enact a banking and currency reform law.

Democratic leaders are in a position to force the passage of such a measure in the house, but in the senate, where no closure rule obtains, there is not any way to cut off debate as long as senators want to talk. Senators have been broken long talking records in the past currency debates, and fear is expressed that not even the torrid atmosphere of the dog days or the humidity of the early fall months will drive them away from the job.

Many representatives and senators have died as the result of exposure to the extreme heat that attends Washington summers. The weather here is particularly severe on the elderly, and there are many men of advanced years in both the house and the senate. This is one of the causes of concern on the part of the responsible leaders.

The currency bill is pending in the house committee. Just how long it will remain in committee "only the Lord knows," to quote Chairman Glass.

Despite the restoration to the bill of the provisions retiring the present national bank note circulation and refunding the 2 per cent bonds, upon which such circulation is based, there are other questions that are bound to take time in committee and on the floor of the house.

It is virtually certain that the bill will not be passed by the house until early in August. Troubles unlooked for are likely to arise that may delay
the passage of the bill until the middle of August. Then will come the long grind in the senate.

There is one contingency on which members of congress are hanging their hopes for an adjournment immediately
after the passage of the tariff bill.
President Wilson has never spent a summer in Washington. He has heard all about the rigors of the midsummer
weather of the capital, but the members declare that he will not appreciate it fully until he has had actual experience.

They are hopeful that when the tariff bill is passed, probably about Sept. 1,
the president will consent to adjournment and call congress in special session in October to complete work on the banking and currency bill before the regular session begins.

It is altogether likely that at the appropriate time such a suggestion will be made to the president.

"THE GOVERNOR HAS TAKEN NO ACTION WHAT- EVER"

—PRIVATE SEC'Y BURBA.

George F. Burba, private secretary to Governor Cox announced on Thursday afternoon that the governor had taken no action whatever upon the charges filed with him by the Law and Order League of this city against Mayor Harve W. Smith.

During the morning of Thursday
rumors were current on the street that Governor Cox had agreed to let the people of Washington decide in a special election whether or not Mayor Smith should be removed from office
and that a telegram to that effect had been sent by Governor Cox to the Law and Order League.

STATISTICS PROVE GROWTH OF "MOVIES"

6,380,000,000 Nickels Spent Annually In America.

New York.—Chairman Frank A. Tie-
baur of the first international exhibition of the moving picture arts has completed tabulating moving picture statistics, which show that 6,380,000, 000 nickels are paid yearly by 3,000,
000,000 persons who love the "movie"
shows.

The figures, which are the first official ones ever prepared in this country, are expected to create considerable interest not alone among moving picture
men, but the public at large. The figures show that $319,000,000 was received in quarters, dimes and nickels,
that $80,000,000 is invested in the industry, that more than 200,000 persons
are employed and that 10,000,000 feet
of picture films are produced weekly.

The statistics show a decrease in saloon licenses in some of the smaller
cities, which is attributed to the wage
earners' money going to the "movies."
Instead of "the poor man's club." The
statistics will be illustrated by a moving picture called "The Shrinking Dem-
john," in which a monster demijohn
is made by means of trick photography
to decrease in size, while at the same
time a moving picture theater grows
from a toy size to normal proportions.

SINGING FISH DISTURB TOWN.

This Remarkable Fish Tale Comes
From Bellevue, O.

Bellevue, O.—This town is all flused up over certain singing fish which
keep the villagers awake at nights.
These fish, a variety of bull pout, live
in the subterranean streams which
flow under the place and, possibly becoming homesome, come to the surface
and sing.

Anyway, they gather at the surface
of cisterns and quiet pools in the gardening dusk and chant in chorus what a prominent poetess of Bellevue calls a
sweet, sad, haunting melody, which
she likens to the moaning of night
winds through lonely, brooding pines.

She also believes that the poet in the
subterranean darkness keep track of
each other by their cries and that the
droning sounds are their callings to their mates. But plain citizens who are kept awake are beginning to cuss
the gosh-blamed noise.

In Six Weeks $1 Grows to $300.

Kansas City, Mo.—Starting six weeks ago with $1, Diego John now has a prosperous business and $300 in the bank. He bought a $30 gold watch on
the installment plan, paying the jewelry
company his last dollar down. After obtaining the watch he pawned it for $10. With this money he purchased a cart and consignment of fruit and started out. He has redeemed his watch.

Egg With Two Shells.

Winfield, Kan.—An egg with a double shell is a curiosity that is being exhibited by R. T. Richardson of this city. The outer shell is as large as a turkey egg, which it somewhat resembles. One end of this shell has been broken, and on the inside can be seen
a smaller egg, one which is about the size of an ordinary hen egg.

Beer Bottle Chokes Pelican.

Newport Beach, Cal.—A large gray
pelican was picked up here dead
with a beer bottle tightly wedged in
its throat. The bird from its manner
of flight evidently was in distress. It
was seen to plunge into the surf, and
when it did not rise again R. J. Shafer,
a fisherman, waded in and brought the
dead bird ashore.

MONKEY RUINS A WATCH.

Amazed Owner Stands by and Sees
Timepiece Destroyed.

Spokane, Wash., June 25.—Dissect-
ing a silver watch in the presence of
a rapidly increasing crowd, much to
the chagrin and displeasure of the
owner, is one of the latest tricks of
the monkeys at Natatorium park.

Jack, one of the monkeys which
was captured a couple of weeks ago
after being at large several days, was
in the cage when a man with a silver
watch swung the timepiece in front
of the monkey for a minute. Suddenly the simian seized the watch and
began to take it to pieces before the amazed owner could recover from his
surprise.

The man immediately started in search of a park attendant, but before
one could be found the monkey had
broken the face and taken out all the
wheels as well as the mainspring,
with which he was playing when the
attendant put in an appearance.

terest not alone among moving picture
men, but the public at large. The figures show that $319,000,000 was received in quarters, dimes and nickels,
that $800,000,000 is invested in the industry, that more than 200,000 persons
are employed and that 10,000,000 feet
of picture films are produced weekly.

The statistics show a decrease in sa-
loon licenses in some of the smaller
cities, which is attributed to the wage
earners' money going to the "movies."
Instead of "the poor man's club," the
statistics will be illustrated by a moving picture called "The Shrinking Dem-
john," in which a monster demijohn
is made by means of trick photography
to decrease in size, while at the same
time a moving picture theater grows
from a toy size to normal proportions.

SINGING FISH DISTURB TOWN.

This Remarkable Fish Tale Comes
From Bellevue, O.

Bellevue, O. This town is all fussed up over certain singing fish which
keep the villagers awake at nights.
These fish, a variety of bull pout, live
in the subterranean streams which
flow under the place and, possibly becoming homesick, come to the surface
and sing.

Anyway, they gather at the surface
of cisterns and quiet pools in the gardening dusk and chant in chorus what a
prominent poetess of Bellevue calls a
sweet, sad, haunting melody, which
she likens to the moaning of night
winds through lonely, brooding pines.

She also believes that the poet in the
subterranean darkness keep track of
each other by their cries and that the
droning sounds are their callings to
their mates. But plain citizens who are kept awake are beginning to curse
the gosh-blamed noise.

In Six Weeks $1 Grows to $300.

Kansas City, Mo.—Starting six weeks ago with $1, Dago John now has a prosperous business and $300 in the bank. He bought a $30 gold watch on
the installment plan, paying the jewelry
company his last dollar down. After
obtaining the watch he pawned it for $10. With this money he purchased a
cart and consignment of fruit and
started out. He has redeemed his
watch.

Egg With Two Shells.

Winfield, Kan.—An egg with a double shell is a curiosity that is being
exhibited by R. T. Richardson of this city. The outer shell is as large as a
turkey egg, which it somewhat resembles. One end of this shell has been
broken, and on the inside can be seen
a smaller egg, one which is about the
size of an ordinary hen egg.

Beer Bottle Chokes Pelican.

Newport Beach, Cal.—A large gray
pelican was picked up here dead
with a beer bottle tightly wedged in
its throat. The bird from its manner
of flight evidently was in distress. It
was seen to plunge into the surf, and
when it did not rise again R. J. Shafer,
a fisherman, waded in and brought the
dead bird ashore.

BEFORE you buy any instrument, come in and see this splendid camera. See the improved closing device which prevents the back from coming off when you have the camera loaded. See the spoon that keeps the film roll tight and prevents fogging from light. See how much more convenient is a camera that opens horizontally—the way you want to take 99 per cent of your pictures—instead of vertically, as others open.

AnSCO Cameras are made from finest materials, with best workmanship. Even the lowest in price are made

MONKEY RUINS A WATCH.

Amazed Owner Stands by and Sees
Timepiece Destroyed.

Spokane, Wash., June 25.—Dissect-
ing a silver watch in the presence of
a rapidly increasing crowd, much to
the chagrin and displeasure of the
owner, is one of the latest tricks of
the monkeys at Nottatorium park.

Jack, one of the monkeys which
was captured a couple of weeks ago
after being at large several days, was
in the cage when a man with a silver
watch swung the timepiece in front
of the monkey for a minute. Suddenly the simian seized the watch and
began to take it to pieces before the
amazed owner could recover from his
surprise.

The man immediately started in
search of a park attendant, but before
one could be found the monkey had
broken the face and taken out all the
wheels as well as the mainspring
with which he was playing when the
attendant put in an appearance.

LAKE ERIE AQUATIC CARNIVAL

Huge Sum Appropriated For Water Sports July 28 and 29.

One of the greatest sets of inland aquatic sports ever held in the country is scheduled to take place on Lake Erie July 28 and 29. There will be races for yachts, motorboats and hydroplanes at Toledo and Put-In-Bay. The celebration will have the co-operation of the government and all the states bordering on the great lakes, together with the state of Rhode Island, where Commodore Perry was born, and the state of Kentucky.

The government has appropriated half a million dollars, and each of the states bordering on the lakes and the states of Rhode Island and Kentucky have appropriated $150,000. It is understood that the state of New York will appropriate $250,000.

ALL PITCHERS NOT LION HEARTED

Preparations to Take Him Out Affects a Twirler.

ALLEN LOSES HIS NERVE.

Brooklyn Southpaw Said to Be Equal of Rucker Except For This Peculiarity—Makes Matty Work Harder. How It Affects Other Hurlers.

Ball players in the National and American leagues are not as courageous as most fans imagine. Most followers of the game carry the idea that the men who pitch and who stand up at the plate and allow a pitcher to throw the ball at their heads have a lion's heart. Such is not always the case.

There is a twirler on the Brooklyn team who would be a wonderful slab artist if he were not inclined to be timid. It is not the intention to convey the idea that he is "yellow," but only to point out how a player deprives himself of being a topnotcher in the ranks through fear of what he imagines is a disgrace and the lack of an abundance of nerve.

The individual in question is Pitcher F. L. Allen of the Trolley Dodgers. He is a southpaw and the possessor of as great an assortment of twisters as any left hander in the National league today. Manager Dahlen thinks as much of him as he does of Nap Rucker and depends upon him almost as much. But Allen has that one fault of becoming intimidated when he observes from the rubber that another man is being sent out to warm up to be in readiness should his services be required.

Brooklyn secured Allen from Mobile, Ala., last spring, and it was a member of the board of directors of the Southern league team who told of the peculiarity of the southpaw.

"Allen was on our team in the season of 1911, and as I saw every game he twirled at home I studied him thoroughly," said the Mobile baseball man. "One of the first faults I detected was his tendency to ascend when another twirler was sent out to loosen his arm. It seemed as soon as the pitcher walked from the bench Allen would lose all his nerve. I can easily realize it, for you will often find men who will quit when they discover that another is being sent preparing to take their place. It seems to impress upon them their efforts are not what they should be. This is the way it affected Allen. If he were handled properly I believe he would be a wonder of the league. By that I mean if Dahlen in sending a man to warm up would keep him out of Allen's sight he would get better results."

Sending pitchers out to warm up when the man on the slab is weakening and threatening to toss away the game affects some twirlers, and most of them differently from the way it does Allen. Marquard of the New York Giants is one who is inclined to lose his nerve when McGraw orders another man to get ready. Christy Mathewson of the same club is just the opposite. He is a great twirler, and it hurts him to be taken out, and therefore when he notices two or three men at the clubhouse warming up he braces and pitches harder than ever. Seaton of the Philadelphia is of much the same temperament, as is Suggs of the Cincinnati club.

When Manager Evers of the Cubs wants George Pierce to tighten and pitch his "head off," he stops the game and picks a man from the bench and sends him to the clubhouse accompanied by a catcher. The effect this has on the left hander is more than perceptible. His action shows it. He walks around the rubber with a quick, snappy stride, nervously calls for Archer to give him the sign and shoots the ball in the direction of the plate with terrific speed. He is one of the twirlers who consider it disgraceful to be yanked from the slab, and he would rather miss his meals for two days than have that happen. Pierce has a sort of fiery temper while pitching, and when a club makes a run or a few hits off him he grits his teeth and strains himself all the more.

Batters are required to have as much nerve and fighting spirit as the pitchers. Often they will have balls thrown at their heads while at the plate, which is done by the slabman in an effort to scare them. The hitters have to take this and still remain there and step into the following balls as if nothing happened. When a batter is frightened by a pitcher throwing a ball at him he is lost and at the mercy of the twirler, who probably will come back with a big curve and strike him out. There are many pitchers in the league who have that trick.

RUDOLPH A SENSATION.

Boston's Sturdy Pitcher Making a Great Name For Himself.

Pitcher Dick Rudolph is now the most talked of man in Boston National league baseball circles at present. The cause of all this chirping is due to the fact that Dick has been twirling consistently good for the Braves. Manager George Stallings says that Rudolph will stand the heavy batters of the old baseball organization on their heads before the season is over.

This is Rudolph's first year with the Braves, but he has made a splendid showing and must be classed with the season's finds. This is not Rudolph's first trial in the big show. Two years ago he was a member of the Giants' squad, but was sent back to the minors for more seasoning. Last year he made a great reputation for himself while a member of the Toronto team of the International league. He won twenty-five out of thirty-five games pitched and led the winning twirlers in his circuit.

TWO LEADERS MAY LOSE THEIR JOBS

Birmingham and Stovall Likely to Be Deposed.

ARE IN BAD WITH JOHNSON.

Pair Aroused Displeasure of Big Ban Recently—If Men Are Let Out This Winter Cleveland and St. Louis Fans Will Put Up Big Howl.

That the heads of two managers in the American league are in jeopardy is one of the rumors that are spreading around the circuit. At any rate, the two leaders in the big league are not to the liking of Ban Johnson, and when the American league's president's displeasure is aroused something has to give way.

The two leaders mentioned are George Stovall of the St. Louis Browns and Joe Birmingham of the Cleveland Naps. Stovall's case some time ago aroused the displeasure of the big boss, who is said to have ticketed Stovall for retirement unless he achieves the unexpected.

His conclusion was reached when Stovall spat on Umpire Ferguson during a game some time ago.

Birmingham's crime was that of countenancing a row during a Sunday game in Cleveland, and Sunday baseball is hanging on a thread in that city. When Johnson gets sore on a manager his days in the league are usually numbered. The club owners are not hard to convince that some individual is a detriment to the league. Once Johnson makes up his mind to do so, it is not at all unlikely that when the next season rolls around both Stovall and Birmingham will have been deposed.

Ban Johnson in the past has generally been right, but he has made his mistakes. One of his recent ones was in connection with this same Cleveland club, the players of which engaged in a fist fight with those of the Red Sox some weeks ago.

As a result of that fracas Nunnemaker of the Sox was fined when, as a matter of fact, he was assaulted, not the aggressor. Johnson had to come down from that position.

Johnson, too, was going to rule off Stovall for life, but he didn't. If he has a can tied to Birmingham because that manager's high spirited man, Jackson, got into trouble between innings there will certainly be a town called Cleveland to be heard from if Joe is ousted.

And it might also be mentioned that the fans in St. Louis will also be there with a big howl. Surely big Ban cannot ignore the kick and the growls of the fans of both cities. He needs them to go through the hustles to help the club magnates pay him his $25,000 salary.

LIPTON HAS FAITH IN BURTON.

Believes Yachtsman Will Pilot Shamrock IV to Victory in Cup Races.

"In trusting the command of Shamrock IV to the races for the America's cup to an amateur yachtsman, W. P. Burton, I am aware I am doing some unprecedented thing," said Sir Thomas Lipton recently. "But I believe the results will fully justify the wisdom of my choice."

"I regard Burton fully the equal of any professional skipper in England, the proof of which he repeatedly has given while sailing against them in various yachts he has owned, notably with the nineteen meter Octavia in 1911, when he finished the season at the top of the class."

"Of course Burton will have the benefit of a professional skipper throughout the races, two if he wants them—and Nicholson, the Shamrock's designer, who is in the front rank of amateur yachtsmen, also will sail on the challenger. Nicholson shares my high opinion of Burton."

"So far as the races are concerned," Sir Thomas said in conclusion, "I shall simply foot the bills and let Burton do the rest."

Three Kolehmainens Have Chance.
When Tatu Kolehmainen, the younger brother of William and Hannes, can run twenty kilometers (or about 12 miles) 700 yards in 1 hour 9 minutes it looks as if there might be three members of that family who have a chance to beat the hour record held by Watkins, the Englishman.

HARD ON YOUNGSTER TO MAKE DEBUT AGAINST STAR PITCHER.

Len Criger, the veteran catcher, says about the toughest thing which can happen to a youngster breaking into the major league is to make his debut against a pitching star or a couple of them. He says that one of the most amusing things of this kind he can recall was the time Camilo La Chance broke into the National league. La Chance got a berth with Brooklyn, and the latter team had a series on with New York at the time. La Chance first faced Amos Rusie, then in the heyday of his career, and went down three times on strikeouts in the only three times he was legally up. Next he got Meekin and the same performance took place. La Chance, in other words, had struck out six times in as many times up in two games. After the second game he inquired whether all of the pitchers in the National league were as good as Rusie and Meekin and was given the cheerful information that they were. La Chance started to pack his belongings and quit the club, but some one persuaded him to give the league a further trial, and, as a result, he played for a number of years in the parent big body.

Will Require Bigger Prison To Hold Them

Scott street, Covington.

It developed that on the Hamilton county petitions the names of men who secured the signatures were not signed to the affidavit certifying the correctness of the signatures, but other names had been written illegibly over the original name.

An arrest in Cincinnati is looked for; also one at Newark because of the discovery that there is no such person as D. D. Ashcraft, who apparently swore to the authenticity of signatures on one paper.

On the Lucas county petition for the Green Law referendum is the name of Samuel M. Jones, and the street address is that of the home of the Golden Rule mayor of Toledo occupied at the time of his death, some years ago.

BABY McLEAN'S FARM A PLAYTHING.

Newport, R. I., July 10.—Vincent Walsh McLean, the $100,000,000 baby, has a new plaything, the total cost of which would foot up nearly as much as the president of the United States salary for a year. The new plaything is a farm with goats on it. Baby McLean is now on his farm at Black Point, nine miles from here. He is 3 years old, and with his goats, sheep and chickens he is having a bully time. In the Washington mansion of his parents he has over $50,000 worth of playthings, but he cares little for any of these. He particularly likes farm life.

Lightning Hits Church.

Crooksville, O., July 10.—Lightning struck the Fairview U. B. church in South Crooksville and had it not been for the prompt work on the part of persons residing near by the structure would have burned to the ground.

Assassin Sentenced to Death.

Madrid, July 10.—Sancho Alegre was sentenced to death for his attempt to assassinate King Alfonso on April 13.

Young Girl Drowns.

Columbus, O., July 10.—While boating with girl companions in the Olentangy river, Gertrude Klemm, 15, was drowned when the boat capsize.

Cuban Police Chief Dead.

Havana, July 10.—General Armando Riva, chief of the Cuban national police, who was shot on Monday last while riding in the Prado with his children, died at an early hour today.

IT'S UP TO BENDER AND PLANK TO KEEP ATHLETES IN FRONT

Philadelphia, July 10.—Connie Mack says that if Eddie Plank and "Big Chief" Bender retain their present form there is nothing to the American league pennant fight but the Athletics. The young twirlers have been delivering good ball, but Bender and Plank are needed to tackle the stronger clubs. Bender of late has been in rare form and pitching as good ball as he ever did. When right the "Big Chief" is one of the greatest in the game.

CARDS HAVE BEST WAITERS.

In Huggins and Sheckard St. Louis Has Two Stars.

James Tilden Sheckard and Miller Huggins, those two exponents of the art of waiting and walking, are now with the same club, the St. Louis Cardinals.

MILLER HUGGINS, ST. LOUIS NATIONALS' STAR WALKER.

There are any number of twirlers who wish the men were separated. Last season while with the Chicago Cubs Sheckard drew 122 walks. Huggins worked the pitchers for eighty-seven. They are the "head waiters" of the National league.

This year Huggins and Sheckard are drawing bases on balls by the baker's dozen as of old. Both have been annoyances to pitchers for years, but this is the first season that pitchers are called upon to face them both in one afternoon.

GREATEST BATTLE IS FOUGHT AGAIN

Veterans of the Blue and the Gray Met at Gettysburg.

40,000 SOLDIERS IN CAMP.

President Wilson Orator on July 4.
General Sickles Only Division Commander Present, Death Having Mustered Out All Others on Both Sides.

Gettysburg, Pa.—Again, after fifty years, the men who fought under the stars and stripes and those who followed the stars and bars into the din of battle have met on the battlefield at Gettysburg—this time not to fight for the cause that both sides believed to be right, but to celebrate the centennial anniversary of the greatest battle ever fought on American soil and, with one exception, the greatest battle ever fought in the history of the world. About 40,000 veterans met and fought the battle over again this time, reposing in comfortable chairs and telling the younger generation of the trials and hardships of fifty years ago.

THE BLUE AND THE GRAY AT GETTYSBURG.

The quiet little Pennsylvania town stepped back fifty years and looked upon the army of blue and the army of gray meeting again on her doorstep and thereby showed to the world that the scars of battle are not as deep as the feeling of American brotherhood. From the first day of the celebration until the last from early morning until long after the sun had gone down the veterans trooped around the little town which had so peacefully slept among its hills since Lee and Meade turned their legions southward and met for the fierce three days' battle so many years ago. When the soldiers arrived in Gettysburg they found the stars and stripes fluttering from every window of every house in the town. The stars and bars were much in evidence.

During the celebration train arrived in Gettysburg, crowded with old men from all parts of the country. The average age of Confederate civil war veterans today is seventy-two years.

The veterans lost no time in leaving their trains and establishing themselves in camp. Five thousand tents, each accommodating comfortably a soldier, had been erected on the slope of the ground from Emmitsburg road to the point on Seary ridge where the charge of Pickett started on the third day of the fight. They covered the "Peach Orchard," the "Wheat Field," where thousands of men were lost, and part of the ground over which Pickett charged but they did not reach the "Angle" or the base of Cemetery hill from whose height Meade's artillery cut to pieces the legions of Pickett.

The formal exercises were held in tent near the Emmitsburg road, but they lasted but two hours each day. The veterans spent the remainder of the time as they pleased, renewing acquaintances and greeting comrades whom they had not seen or heard of for the intervening fifty years.

Never in the time of peace had the old town witnessed anything that equalled in grandeur the parades of the feeble veterans that passed along the main street of Gettysburg day after day. The white haired soldiers, many stooped from old age, marched in line either with the rebels or the Yankees each day of the celebration.

The arrangements for feeding the old soldiers were excellent. Good meals differing greatly from those that they obtained in the stirring days of 1862 were served the old soldiers and in true camp fashion. The veterans in the happiest humor waited in line to get their rations.

Of the Union leaders only one corps commander was there—General Daniel E. Sickles—death having mustered out all the other generals—Meade, Hancock, Howard, Slocum, Reynolds, Hunt and Webb, while on the Confederate side have gone Lee, Longstreet, Hill, Ewell, Alexander and Pickett, whose name will ever be linked with Gettysburg because of the memorable charge that his division made against the Union center, a charge that will live in history as long as valor is commemorated.

On July 4 President Wilson was one of the speakers. Many other men notable throughout the nation attended the celebration and reunion.

Seven Children in Fourteen Months.

Berlin.—The wife of Herr Ottmann, a well-to-do manufacturer at Schontal Bavaria, has given birth to seven children within fourteen months. In April 1912, four girls were born at the same time. She recently gave birth to triplets, all boys.
